

IN THE HIGH TOWERS OF THE BLACK QUARTZ CASTLE

HEXI WING (2017)

Princess Coconut is laying on her bed depressed and crying. Glo-orbs light the room, hovering around eye-level. She traces silver nails over a comforter textured by black velvet honeycomb. She's wearing a stylized white one-piece swimsuit type thing made out of thick synthetic material. Things have been shitty lately but now her leg has gradiented into black quartz and shattered off right below the knee. This transformation of skin fading thru to spires of opaque mineral is truly only mildly painful. It actually looks really cool.

Princesses can be notoriously bad at problem solving. Coco hasn't got out of bed since her leg broke off and its been like 6 hours. She's starting to get hungry. It feels like the opposite sides of her stomach are sticking to each other. For some reason it makes her think about anal sex. Glassy-sounding synthesizer music plays on her sound system. Flipping thru libraries of media on the room's holo projector, she winds up listening to guided meditations and fingering her ass to the guys hypnotic voice.

This girl is lonely. The Black Quartz empire is actually a small island off the tropical eastern pacific. Its like an isolated township with 5000 people. Half the population is sick or elderly and the other half are their caretakers. Princess Coconut is sick. She's in bed with her bottoms pulled to the side, fingering herself and playing with her cock. She's still wearing her fancy black tiara.

Princess Coconut's cute shallow breathing isn't audible above the sounds of her music and guided meditation audio. Bright rainbow screensaver holograms dance along the ceiling. She's trying to play with her tits how she imagines a boy would do it. That means kinda roughly but definitely not how a guy would actually do it. Its not gross. Its cute. She's really cute. Princess Coconut means well. Shes like bi-leaning-straight but she's a cute dumb trans princess and its not her fault.

She's almost gonna cum when Xerxes, the head of the Black Quartz Royal Night Guard, walks in. Who knows why he doesn't knock. He's carrying an intricate black bowl of mandarin oranges because Princess Coconut hasn't been down to eat lunch or dinner and its almost midnight. Xerxes sees his Princess on the bed with her new cool looking quartz leg and her fingers up her ass. A mandarin orange rolls over the lip of his bowl and onto the checkered, rainbow-on-black quartz floor of Princess Coconut's room. Hes instantly turning around but Coco interrupts him, asking awkwardly if he wants to hang out for a bit.

Xerxes is a tall beautiful gargoyle with intricate patterned stonework skin, wearing stylish gothic armour, but his boner is still showing thru his pants when he turns around. Its big and pressing to the left side. The room smells like Princess Coconut's sex and its sexy to him. She's already pulled her clothes back over herself and rolls onto her stomach, resting her head on crossed arms.

“My leg hurts. I was having some weird feelings about my body already and then all this stuff” She gestures.

Xerxes sits next to Princess Coconut on the bed and she buries her face in her supersoft comforter, sort of leaning against his hard stone leg. He strokes the back of her neck. Xerxes has dangerous claws and cute sharp teeth and elf-like ears and big sexy wings.

“I wanna try doing anal with you.” She says and squishes her face into her sheets. Xerxes rests his cold hand on the back of her neck. His clawed fingers have cool angular designs on them.

“You like it in the butt huh?”

She moves unexpectedly fast under his hand and crawls into his lap kissing his stone lips eagerly. Big hands wrap around Coconut’s midsection, feeling the give of her flesh. This is the first time he’s been able to examine her body so closely, her hips, her ass, evaluating it all and getting dizzy with the thought of having any kind of effect on her body. He has barely seen her without a royal cape so he never noticed how big her ass is. Coconut wants to collapse when she feels his hands all over her big ass. She’s drooling on him. Its so cute. She definitely hasn’t got laid in a while. She needs to stop kissing and catch her breath for a second.

Coco’s hips get lifted into the air. The world spins around her for a second. She struggles to keep her balance with her new crystal leg. Its heavier. Xerxes has his hand under her clothes and his smooth detailed fingers slowly circle her twitching asshole.

“I can tell how bad you need to get it.” He says darkly. “I bet it hurts inside from how much you need someone to fuck this.” Coco can’t keep her head up but she manages to sorta shamefully nod.

Xerxes pulls her towards him and licks her wherever he can reach. He pulls her bottoms up and against her ass so her asscheeks are more exposed. Biting her soft legs and ass with his sharp teeth and admiring how she looks with her butt pointed towards him like that. She wiggles and jerks erratically while he plays with her. She tastes so delicious and alive.

“Call me your slutty trap princess” Coco demands with a determined expression on her face.

Xex pulls Coco’s fashion swimsuit to the side and pushes his long forked tongue up her tight ass. She gasps and drips cum as her insides wring around his stone tongue, obviously trying to milk it like a cock. The pure biology of how desperate Coco is to get cummed-in is just too blatant and sexy to him. She’s pressing her ass up against his face just rubbing it all over him disrespectfully. After a few minutes Xerxes pulls back.

“I want to serve my slutty trap princess.” He says, then he goes back to licking her obediently. Studying how she reacts to pressure in different places. Like a good royal guard he's making notes about it in his head as he goes. He's really hoping this isn't the only time he gets to put his cock in her. He thinks to himself that he could do a really good job at regularly getting her off. It would be too cute to train a Princess to rely on your tongue and your cock. Xerxes getting too carried away with his thoughts. This thought is fucking disgusting. Hate it. Princess Coconut is drooling all over her sheets and not really thinking about anything.

Xerxes pulls back again and admires his work. Coco's ass is all wet and slowly readjusting after he's removed his tongue. He pulls her open with his thumbs and guides her hips around a little with his hands, feeling her weight. She's just given herself up to him. He helps her plant her knees and puts his heavy stone cock down on the small of her back. Its hard to imagine it would fit in her ok. They're an ill-matched pair but its hot. She's very futuristic. He looks very medieval. They're in different social castes. He traces the tip of his cock up and down her ass crack. She wiggles for him.

"I want to take your clothes off first." Xex realizes. He bends over her and wraps his arms around her chest, pulling her upwards. He peels the straps of her stretchy outfit to the side and down over her shoulders and chest. Coconut's nipples are so puffy and cute and black. Xex gets distracted for a second and starts pinching and pulling at them hard, harder than she'd ever done for herself. He bites into her neck with his sharky teeth and teases her tits for a few minutes before remembering what he was doing.

Princess Coconut's eyes are unfocused as her outfit pools around her knees. Xerxes is running his hands over her cute tummy and tits and chest and hips. Coco presses her vulnerable naked body against him in total ecological surrender. Xerxes turns her around, admiring her and touching on her from every angle. He puts her on her back. She's sinking into super soft black matte bedcovers. Her knees are up by her chest. He hovers over her, presses the fat cold head of his erection slowly into her asshole. She gradually starts to open up around him.

"I'm the dumbest bitch literally in the entire fucking world why the fuck do I even exist!" Blurts out Princess Coconut suddenly as Xex's dick pops past her sphincter and into her.

"I don't think you are. You're doing good baby. Let me get it in a little further."

"Ok but— I've just been fucking up every single thing lately. I got a curse put on me." Coco bounces her ass weakly, struggling to work Xerxes cock in further. She's wincing and making faces but she looks so cute with a big intricate stone cock jammed half into her. "The thing with my leg is just on the surface. I'm scared thats going to be my whole body in the next few days. And I don't even do anything with my life so I can hardly tell why I'd be so upset. I'm so fucking stupid"

"Its not stupid"

"I know what its like to be turned to a rock." Xex says stupidly, focused on pushing his penis deeper into this stressed out princess's cunt. "It doesn't mean you're stupid. And a lot of people just lose a foot or something from a namesake curse like that. It really looks cool."

Xerxes finally finds a way to get it even further into this poor girl. She's hyperventilating and making weird cute noises and barely listening to him talk. "The only reason the curse would have a chain reaction like that is if you keep not eating and not drinking fresh water over the next couple days." He starts bouncing her hips up and down on his cock faster. "You have curse-repellant clothing in your wardrobe. You just have to not do what you've been doing. There's lots of people that want to help"

Princess Coconuts body takes a cute shape around Xerxes cock and his gripping pointed claws as he starts working in and out of her. She's bottoming out at like half-depth for him but its cute and he feels like hes gonna cum already anyways.

She looks so totally different from when he sees her usually. Strands of her bangs stick to her sweaty face. Her ass dimples around where hes trying to jam is cock. The way her body moves dares him to cum inside her.

"Can you." She's breathing heavily- "Take it out of me." Princess Coconut is writhing as she's momentarily distracted from the pain in her crystallized leg. Sterner now. "Take it out of me."

Xerxes slowly pulls his cock out of Princess Coconut's ass and grips his cock head tightly between his thumb and his forefinger. In a second he shoots oil-slick black cum all over her belly. Thick black ropes trace a line up her body. Princess Coconut imagines that's how far it would shoot into her body if she let it. A bit even gets in her hair. She's totally soaked in sweat and has static behind her eyes. Her ears are ringing. Her lower half looks so cute and right in the aftermath of what she and Xerxes did together.

"That's the best fuck I've ever had in my life." She says laughing. Its a nerdy thing to say but Xerxes cant stop laughing either. He doesn't say the line he thinks of. He doesn't say anything. He pulls her into his arms and spoons her. They watch hologram programming dance in neon colours over the bed for a couple minutes but Xerxes has to go and finish the rest of his patrol.
